CONVERTIBLE PROMISSORY NOTE

THE VALUE WE UNLOCK

With our Intelligent Grow Media™ there is no need for many of the expensive infrastructure components seen with some competitive systems.

Our systems require less water, electricity, nutrients, and labor than any other growing systems.

We have the only hydroponic systems that incorporate soil, ensuring that all the micro flora and fauna of healthy soil is there to grow natural, organic plants without chemical fertilizers and additives.

Legal marijuana is one of the fastest growing U.S. markets. Current plant growing tech is often complex, and costly to maintain. Intelligent Grow Media™ systems cost less because they're smarter, making it easier to produce ultimate organic quality and purity. We are seeking Co-Founders who see that efficiency and quality are the future of growing plants.

Legal cannabis market expected to reach $24B by 2025.

The Motley Fool sees a Compound Annual Growth Rate (CAGR) of at least 38% in 2019, maybe double by 2022.

Two-thirds of U.S. states have now legalized some form of medical marijuana.

For 2018, The Associated Press reported a $10B investment in the legal marijuana industry.
